Wilbert Life Insurance Co. & Wilbert Funeral Service 17
In 1866, a cabinetmaker named Charles Rabenhorst began helping families say their final goodbyes to loved ones. At the same time, the Catholic Church was establishing houses of worship in an area torn by the strife of the Civil War and Reconstruction.

On parallel tracks of family-orientated service, these two organizations together witnessed the unprecedented growth of the Capitol City in the 20th Century.

Now, on the 50th Anniversary of the Diocese of Baton Rouge, Rabenhorst Funeral Homes congratulates all the clergy and laity for their many years of dedication. Their spirit of faith has resulted in 68 church parishes, 31 schools and nearly one-quarter million active Catholics.

Rabenhorst Funeral Homes’ 145-year tradition also has been to strive for excellence when providing our services to the community. This philosophy means that generations of the families we have served bid their final goodbyes with dignity, respect and no regrets.

A recent questionnaire prepared and tabulated by Selected Independent Funeral Homes found that 98.63 percent of respondents were satisfied with the level of service they received and would recommend Rabenhorst to their family and friends.

When your family is involved, remember that our tradition always has been to win your trust. It’s the value of a Rabenhorst service.

*Responding to the SIFH questionnaire were 202 persons, who had a family member’s service conducted at Rabenhorst Funeral Homes between March 2010 and January 2011.
